Amend and consolidate the Laws relating to Solicitors and to the service of Indentured Apprentices in Ireland.

A.D. 1893.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend and consolidate the laws relating to solicitors, and to the service of indentured apprentices to solicitors in Ireland:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Preliminary.

- | | | |
|----|--|--------------------------|
| | 1. This Act may be cited as the Solicitors (Ireland) Act, 1893. | Short title. |
| 10 | 2. This Act shall extend to Ireland only. | Extent of Act. |
| 15 | 3. This Act shall, so far as regards the power of the Lord Chancellor and certain of the judges of Her Majesty's High Court of Justice in Ireland and of the Incorporated Law Society to make regulations hereunder, and so far as regards the issue of notices and other proceedings preliminary to holding the first examinations hereunder, come into operation on the passing hereof , and for all other purposes shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four . | Commencement of Act. |
| 20 | 4. In this Act "Lord Chancellor" means the Lord Chancellor of Ireland, and shall include Lords Commissioners, and Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Ireland: | Interpretation of terms. |
| | "Solicitor" means solicitor of the Supreme Court: | |
| | "Registrar" means the registrar of solicitors: | |
| 25 | "The Incorporated Law Society" or "the Society" means "the Incorporated Law Society of Ireland" acting under their present or any future charters: | |
| | [Bill 86.] | A |

A.D. 1893.
40 & 41 Vict.
c. 25, s. 4.

"Preliminary examination" means an examination in general knowledge of persons seeking to become bound under indentures of apprenticeship to solicitors :

"Intermediate examination" means an examination of persons bound under indentures of apprenticeship to solicitors in order to ascertain the progress made by such persons during their apprenticeship in acquiring the knowledge necessary for rendering them fit and capable to act as solicitors :

"Final examination" means an examination of persons applying to be admitted as solicitors as well touching the indentures of apprenticeship and service as the fitness and capacity of such persons to act as solicitors in all business and matters usually transacted by solicitors, and includes, where any allegation is made by the registrar of solicitors as to the moral unfitness of any such person to be an officer of the Supreme Court, an inquiry into the truth of such allegation.

Registrar of solicitors.
29 & 30 Vict.
c. 84, s. 28

5. There shall be a registrar of solicitors, who shall have the powers and perform the duties by this Act provided, and the office of such registrar shall be vested in the Incorporated Law Society under their present or any future charters of incorporation.

No person to act as a solicitor unless admitted and enrolled.

6. From and after the commencement of this Act, no person shall act as a solicitor, or as such solicitor sue out any writ or process, or commence, carry on, solicit, or defend any action, suit, or other proceeding, in his own name or in the name of any other person in Her Majesty's Supreme Court, or in the Court of Bankruptcy in Ireland, or in the Court of the Land Commission, or in the county court or petty sessions courts of any county or riding of a county, or in any court of civil or criminal jurisdiction, in that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Ireland, or act as a solicitor in any cause, matter, or suit, civil or criminal, to be heard, tried, or determined before any justice of assize, of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, or at any general or quarter sessions of the peace for any county, riding, division, liberty, city, borough, or place, or before any justice or justices, or before any Commissioner of Her Majesty's Revenue, unless such person shall have been admitted and enrolled and otherwise duly qualified to act as a solicitor under or by virtue of the laws now in force, or unless such person shall after the commencement of this Act be admitted and enrolled and otherwise duly qualified to act as a solicitor pursuant to the directions and regulations of this Act, and unless such person shall continue to be so duly qualified and on

c. 84, s. 3.

the roll of solicitors at the time of his acting in the capacity of a solicitor as aforesaid, except as herein-after in this Act mentioned.

A.D. 1893.

Lectures and Examinations.

7. It shall be lawful for the Incorporated Law Society, from time to time, to provide lectures, classes, and other teaching for persons bound, or about to be bound, under indentures of apprenticeship, to solicitors, and for that purpose to appoint such professors and lecturers to hold office for such period, and on such terms, and for such remuneration, and subject to such conditions as the Incorporated Law Society may from time to time determine.

Power to Society to provide lectures.

8. The Incorporated Law Society are hereby authorised and required to hold, at least three times in the year, commencing with the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four, and in every succeeding year, a preliminary examination, an intermediate examination, and a final examination; and the Society shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the entire management and control of all such examinations, and shall have power from time to time to make regulations with respect to all or any of the following matters; (that is to say,)

Examinations to be held under management of Society.

(A.) With respect to the admission to apprenticeship, the attendance of apprentices at lectures, and other matters connected therewith;

40 & 41 Vict.
c. 25. s. 6.

(B.) With respect to the subjects for and the mode of conducting the examination of candidates; and

(C.) With respect to the times and places of examination, and the notices of examinations; and

(D.) With respect to the certificates to be given to persons of their having passed any examination; and

(E.) With respect to the appointment and removal of examiners, professors, and lecturers, and with respect to the remuneration by fees or otherwise of the examiners, professors, or lecturers so appointed; and

(F.) With respect to any other matter or thing as to which the Society think it expedient to make regulations for the purpose of carrying this section into execution.

Any regulation made under the authority of this section may be altered or revoked by a subsequent regulation; and copies of all regulations made under the authority of this section shall be transmitted to the Lord Chancellor and the presidents of the Queen's Bench Division, and the Exchequer Division of the High Court, and to the Master of the Rolls, and if within twenty-eight days after a copy of any regulation has been so transmitted, any three of those judges, or any two of them in the event of the office of President of the Exchequer Division ceasing to exist (the Lord Chancellor being one), signify by writing under their hands, addressed to the president or secretary of the Society, their dissent from such regulation or any part thereof, the same shall be of no force or effect; and if after any such regulation or any part thereof has come into force, any three of those judges, or any two of them in the event aforesaid (the Lord Chancellor being one), shall signify in manner aforesaid their dissent from such regulation or any part thereof, the same shall, at the expiration of two months, cease to be of any force or effect.

A.D. 1893.

Apprenticeship and Admission.

Admission to apprenticeship.

9. Save as herein-after by this Act provided, no person shall be capable of being bound by indentures of apprenticeship to serve as an apprentice to a solicitor unless he shall have obtained from the Incorporated Law Society a certificate that he has passed a preliminary examination and has complied with such regulations as the Society under the provisions of this Act may have prescribed with respect to the admission to apprenticeship.

No solicitor
to have more than two apprentices
at one time, or to take or replace any apprentice
after discontinuing business, nor whilst clerk
to another
solicitor.
6 & 7 Vict.
c. 73. s. 4.

10. No solicitor shall have (save as herein-after in this section mentioned) more than two apprentices at one and the same time bound by indentures of apprenticeship to serve him as apprentices, and no solicitor shall take, have, or retain any such apprentice after such solicitor shall have discontinued or left off practising as or carrying on the business of a solicitor, nor whilst such solicitor shall be retained or employed as a writer or clerk by any other solicitor, and service by any apprentice under such indentures as aforesaid, to any solicitor for and during any time that such solicitor shall be so employed as writer or clerk to any other solicitor, shall not be deemed good service under such indentures: Provided always that in every case where a solicitor at the commencement of this Act has three apprentices he may have and retain such apprentices till the expiration of their indentures of apprenticeship.

No person to be admitted
a solicitor unless he shall have served an apprenticeship
of five years.
29 & 30 Vict.
c. 84. s. 4.

11. No person, save as herein-after by this Act provided, shall from and after the commencement of this Act be capable of being admitted and enrolled as a solicitor unless such person shall have been bound by indentures of apprenticeship to serve as an apprentice for and during the term of five years to a practising solicitor, and shall have duly served under such indentures for and during the said term of five years.

12. Any person having taken the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of laws in the University of Dublin, Oxford, Cambridge, Durham, London, or the Royal University in Ireland, or the degree of bachelor of arts, master of arts, bachelor of laws, or doctor of laws in any of the universities of Scotland (none of such degrees being honorary degrees), and who at any time after having taken such degree, and either before or after the commencement of this Act, has been bound by indentures of apprenticeship to a practising solicitor, shall only be required to be bound and serve thereunder for the term of three years.
13. Every person who either before or after the commencement of this Act has been called to the degree of utter barrister in Ireland, and has procured himself to be disharred, and has been bound by indentures of apprenticeship to a practising solicitor, shall only be required to be bound and serve thereunder for the term of three years.
14. Every person who, after the commencement of his apprenticeship, and previous to his admission as a solicitor, has taken or shall take the degree of bachelor of arts in the University of Dublin, or in the Royal University of Ireland, shall only be required to serve under indentures of apprenticeship to a practising solicitor for the term of four years.
15. Every person who, as a matriculated or as a non-matriculated student of the University of Dublin or of any of the Queen's Colleges in Ireland or the Royal University of Ireland, shall have attended or shall attend any prescribed lectures, and shall have passed or shall pass any prescribed examinations of the professors of the faculty of law in the said University of Dublin or in any of the Queen's Colleges in Ireland or in the Royal University of Ireland for a period of two collegiate years, shall only be required to serve under indentures of apprenticeship to a practising solicitor for the term of four years. "Prescribed" in this section means prescribed by any regulations made by the Incorporated Law Society.
16. Any person who, either before or after the commencement of this Act, shall for the term of seven years have been a bonâ fide clerk to a solicitor or solicitors, and during that term shall have been bonâ fide engaged in the transaction and performance, under the direction and superintendence of such solicitor or solicitors, of such matters of business as are usually transacted and performed by solicitors, and who shall produce to the Incorporated Law Society satisfactory evidence that he has faithfully, honestly, and diligently

 c. 25. s. 10.

17. A certificate of having passed a preliminary examination 5 under this Act shall not be required from any person within the twelfth or thirteenth sections of this Act, or who has passed the first public examination before moderators at Oxford, or the previous examination at Cambridge, or the examination in arts for the second year at Durham, or who has passed one of the local examinations 10 established by the University of Oxford, or one of the non-gremial examinations established by the University of Cambridge, or one of the examinations of the Oxford and Cambridge Schools Examination Board, or one of the open public matriculation examinations of the Universities of Dublin, London, or the Royal University of Ireland, 15 or in any of the Queen's Colleges in Ireland, or the examination for the first-class certificate of the College of Preceptors incorporated by Royal Charter in 1849. The above exemption may be extended by regulations made under this Act to any persons who pass any examination held in any of the above-mentioned universities, or in 20 any other university, college, or educational institution specified in such regulations.

Power of judges to grant special exemptions
 from preliminary examination.
 40 & 41 Vict.
 c. 25. s. 11.

18. The Lord Chancellor, the Presidents of the Queen's Bench Division and the Exchequer Division of the High Court, and the Master of the Rolls, or any one or more of them may, where under 25 special circumstances they or he see fit so to do, exempt any person from compliance with the enactments and regulations for the time being in force with respect to the preliminary examination, either entirely or partially, or subject to any such conditions as to them or him may seem fit. 30

 28 & 30 Vict.
 c. 84. s. 6.

19. In case any solicitor to whom any apprentice shall be bound by indenture as aforesaid shall, before the end or determination of such contract, become bankrupt, or be imprisoned for debt and remain in prison for the space of twenty-one days, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, upon the application of such apprentice, to 35 order and direct the said indentures to be discharged, or assigned to such person and upon such terms and in such manner as he shall think fit.

Disqualification of solicitor not to affect service

20. No person who shall have duly served his apprenticeship under indentures pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be 40 prevented or disqualified from being admitted and enrolled as a solicitor, nor liable to be struck off the roll if admitted, by reason or in consequence of the solicitor to whom he may have been bound by such indentures having been after such service struck off the roll, provided that such apprentice or person be otherwise entitled to be admitted and enrolled according to the provisions of this Act.

of apprentice.

29 & 30 Vict.
c. 84 s. 39.

21. No person who has been admitted and enrolled shall be liable to be struck off the roll for or on account of any defect in the indentures of apprenticeship, or in the registry thereof, or in his service under such indentures, or in his admission and enrolment, unless the application for striking him off the roll be made within twelve months from the time of his admission and enrolment, provided that such indentures, registration, service, admission, or enrolment be without fraud.

dentures, &c.
to be made within twelve months of admission.

29 & 30 Vict.
c. 84 s. 40.

22. If any solicitor to whom any person shall be bound shall happen to die before the expiration of the term for which such person shall be so bound, or shall discontinue or leave off practice as a solicitor, or if such indentures shall by mutual consent of the parties be cancelled, or in case such apprentice shall be legally discharged before the expiration of such term by any rule or order of the Lord Chancellor, such apprentice may in any of the said cases be bound by other indentures or by an assignment of his former indentures to serve as apprentice to any other practising solicitor or solicitors during the residue of the said term; and service under such second or other indentures or under such assignment shall be deemed and taken to be good and effectual.

Apprentices
whose masters have died or left off practice
may enter into fresh indentures
for the residue of their term.

29 & 30 Vict.
c. 84 s. 16.

23. In the event of any apprentice requiring to have an assignment made of his indentures under the last preceding section, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, upon application being duly made by or on behalf of such apprentice, and upon being satisfied that a difficulty exists in procuring such assignment to be executed, to order that such indentures shall be transferred to such solicitor as to the Lord Chancellor may seem fit, and upon the making of any such order the said indenture shall be deemed and taken to be absolutely assigned in as full and ample a manner as if an assignment thereof had been duly executed by the person or persons legally entitled to assign the same.

Power to Lord Chancellor to order assignments under last section.

24.—(1.) The indentures whereby any person shall be bound to serve as an apprentice to a solicitor, and which have not been registered before the commencement of this Act, shall, within six months from the date of such indentures, be produced to the registrar, who on being satisfied of the due execution thereof shall enter in a book the names and addresses of the parties to, and the date of the indentures, and the date of the entry. The book in which registrar.

51 & 52 Vict.
c. 65 s. 7.

A.D. 1893. the entries are made shall, during office hours, be open to inspection by any person without fee or reward.

(2.) The registrar may, before making any such entry as aforesaid, require the execution of any articles to be verified by a statutory declaration or otherwise as may be thought fit by the registrar.

Provision if indentures not registered within six months.
51 & 52 Vict.
c. 65. s. 8.

(3.) If indentures of apprenticeship are not produced to the registrar for entry within six months of the date thereof, they may be subsequently produced and entered, but in that case the service of the apprentice shall be reckoned to commence from the date of the production for entry, unless the Lord Chancellor shall otherwise direct.

Provision where indentures lost.
2 & 3 Vict.
c. 33.

(4.) In any case in which the indentures of apprenticeship shall have been lost before being produced to the registrar for entry, the Lord Chancellor may, upon being satisfied by such evidence as he shall think sufficient of the loss of the original indentures and that the duty has been duly paid thereon or upon a copy thereof, direct that the production of a copy thereof to the registrar shall be a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this section as to the production of indentures of apprenticeship.

51 & 52 Vict.
c. 65. s. 9.

(5.) The provisions of this section with respect to the production and entry of indentures, apply to fresh indentures under the twenty-second section of this Act, in the same manner as they apply to the original indentures.

Apprentices before admission to make affidavit of having served.
29 & 30 Vict.
c. 84. s. 18.

25.—(1.) Every person who has been or shall be bound as an apprentice as aforesaid shall, before he is admitted a solicitor according to this Act, prove, by an affidavit or statutory declaration of himself and of the solicitor to whom he was bound as aforesaid, to be duly made and filed with the registrar, or by such other evidence as shall be satisfactory to the Lord Chancellor, that he has actually and really served and been employed by such practising solicitor, and that he has not (save as herein-after provided) held any office or engaged in any employment whatsoever other than the employment of apprentice to such solicitor and his partner or partners in the business, practice, and employment of a solicitor during the whole time and in the manner required by the provisions of this Act.

Apprentices may hold office or engage in employment in certain cases.
37 & 38 Vict.
c. 68. s. 4.

(2.) Any person while so bound as aforesaid may hold any office or engage in any employment, provided that before or after he enters upon the office, or engages in the employment, he has applied for and obtained—

(a.) The consent thereto in writing of the solicitor to whom he is bound; and

(2.) The sanction thereto of the Lord Chancellor, to be evidenced by his order. A.D. 1860.

(3.) Such order shall not be made except such person shall prove, by an affidavit from the solicitor to whom he is bound, or by such other evidence as shall be satisfactory to the Lord Chancellor, that the holding of such office, or being engaged in such employment, was with the consent of the solicitor to whom he was or is bound, and has not interfered with due service under his indentures of apprenticeship, and the Lord Chancellor shall have power to make any order which he shall think fit as to the service by the person so bound as aforesaid for the remainder of the term of his service, or any part thereof, after the acceptance of such office, or the engagement in such employment, or as to the passing of any examination. Lord Chancellor's order.

(4.) Not less than fourteen days before any such application is made to the Lord Chancellor notice in writing of the application shall be given to the Incorporated Law Society by the applicant, which notice shall state the names and residences of the applicant, and of the solicitor to whom he is bound, and the nature of the office or employment, and the time it is expected to occupy. Notice of application to be given to Incorporated Law Society.

The Society may appear on the hearing of such application, and upon any other proceedings arising out of or in reference to the same.

(5.) The Lord Chancellor may in and by such order impose on the applicant such terms and conditions touching the office or engagement and his employment therein as he may think fit. Lord Chancellor may attach conditions to order. 37 & 38 Vict. c. 43. s. 5.

(6.) Where any terms or conditions shall be so imposed, and the person authorised by the order shall accept the office, or engage in the employment, he shall before being admitted a solicitor, prove to the satisfaction of the Lord Chancellor and of the Incorporated Law Society that he has duly observed and fulfilled those terms and conditions. Proof of compliance with conditions. 37 & 38 Vict. c. 43. s. 6.

26. Subject to the exemptions allowed by this Act, or by regulations made under the authority thereof, no person shall be admitted a solicitor unless he has obtained from the Incorporated Law Society a certificate or certificates to the effect that he has passed a preliminary, an intermediate, and a final examination, and has complied with such regulations as the Society under the provisions of this Act may from time to time prescribe. Certificate of having passed examinations requisite for admission of solicitor. 40 & 41 Vict. c. 26. s. 5.

27. Where any person who has been bound by indentures of apprenticeship to serve as an apprentice to a solicitor has not served as an apprentice under such indentures strictly within the provisions

No person bound by indentures of apprenticeship to serve as an apprentice to a solicitor shall present himself as a candidate at 15 the final examination until after the expiration of the period for which, under the provisions of this Act, he is required to serve as such apprentice before being admitted a solicitor: Provided that whenever any of the periods of five, four, and three years' service mentioned in this Act expire in any vacation, then, and in such 20 case, any person whose period of apprenticeship shall so expire shall be at liberty to present himself at the final examination which shall be held immediately preceding such vacation.

29. Any person who has been called to the degree of utter barrister in Ireland, and is of not less than five years' standing 25 at the bar, and has procured himself to be disbarred with a view of becoming a solicitor, and has obtained from two of the Benchers of the King's Inns a certificate of his being a fit and proper person to practise as a solicitor, shall not be required to obtain a certificate of having passed an intermediate examination under this Act, and 30 shall be entitled, without being bound or serving as an apprentice to a solicitor, on passing a final examination under this Act (except so much of such examination as relates to indentures of apprenticeship and service thereunder), to be admitted and enrolled as a solicitor. 35

30. Any person who has been refused a certificate of having passed an intermediate or final examination, and who objects to such refusal, shall be at liberty within one month next after such refusal to appeal by petition in writing to the Lord Chancellor against such refusal, such petition to be presented in such manner and subject to 40 such regulations as the Lord Chancellor may from time to time direct.

A.D. 1893.

In the meantime, and until the Lord Chancellor otherwise directs, such petition shall be presented at the office of the secretary to the Lord Chancellor without the payment of any fee, and a copy of such petition shall be left therewith and shall be delivered by the 5 secretary to the Lord Chancellor to the secretary of the Incorporated Law Society, and the secretary to the Lord Chancellor shall also notify to such secretary of the Incorporated Law Society the day appointed for the hearing of the petition, and the same shall be heard by the Lord Chancellor on such day after the expiration of 10 fourteen days from the day on which such petition was presented and at such time as he may appoint.

On the hearing of any petition under this section the Incorporated Law Society may appear, and the Lord Chancellor may make such order as to him may seem meet, and where any person who has been 15 refused a certificate of having passed his final examination, on appeal to the Lord Chancellor, obtains an order for his admission, such order shall entitle him to a certificate from the Incorporated Law Society of his fitness and capacity to act as a solicitor, and in the usual business transacted by a solicitor, in the same manner as 20 if he had passed his final examination.

31. A person who has obtained from the Incorporated Law Society a certificate of having passed a final examination may apply to the Lord Chancellor to be admitted as a solicitor, and thereupon the Lord Chancellor, unless cause to the contrary is shown to his 25 satisfaction, shall, by writing under his hand, admit in such manner and form as he shall from time to time direct such person to be a solicitor.

Admission of Colonial Solicitors.

Attorneys and solicitors of colonial courts to be admitted solicitors in Ireland.

29 & 31 Vict.
c. 39, s. 3.

34.—(1.) Subject to the provisions in this section contained, all persons who, being subjects of the British Crown, have been, or shall hereafter be, duly admitted and enrolled as attorneys or solicitors in the superior courts in those of Her Majesty's colonies or dependencies where the system of jurisprudence is founded on or assimilated to the common law and principles of equity, as administered in England, and where full service under indentures of apprenticeship or articles of clerkship to an attorney or solicitor for the space of five years at the least, and an examination to test the qualification of candidates, are or may be required previous to such admission, save only in the case of persons previously admitted as solicitors in England or Ireland, shall, and may be, admitted and enrolled solicitors.

Conditions of such admission.

20 & 21 Vict.
c. 39, s. 4.
37 & 38 Vict.
c. 41, s. 1.

(2.) No person shall be qualified to be admitted a solicitor under this section unless he shall pass such examination to test his fitness and capacity as the Incorporated Law Society shall, by any rules or regulations made under this Act, prescribe, and shall produce at such examination a certificate from the presiding judge of the superior court of common law in the colony or dependency where such person shall have been duly admitted an attorney or solicitor in the form contained in the Second Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect, and shall further make a statutory declaration that he is resident in Ireland, and that he has ceased, for the space of twelve calendar months at the least, to practise as attorney or solicitor in any colonial court of law: Provided always, that when the person seeking to be admitted a solicitor under this section shall have been in actual practice for the period of seven years at the least in such colony or dependency, and shall have served under articles, and passed an examination previously to his admission as an attorney or solicitor in such colony or dependency, he shall not be required, before being admitted a solicitor under this section, to pass the examination herein-before by this section required, or to make a statutory declaration that he has ceased, for the space of twelve calendar months, to practise as attorney or solicitor in any colonial court of law.

Stamp on such admission.

20 & 21 Vict.
c. 39, s. 6.

(3.) The admission of any person as a solicitor under this section shall be stamped with the stamps by law required to be impressed on the admission of solicitors in Ireland, and with such further stamp (if any) as shall, together with the amount of stamps paid on the indentures of apprenticeship or articles of clerkship, and admission in the colony, be equal in amount to the sum by law payable for the time being on articles of apprenticeship in Ireland. A.D. 1892.

- (4.) The provisions of this section shall apply to persons admitted as attorneys or solicitors in the superior courts in such colonies or dependencies only as Her Majesty may from time to time, by Order in Council, specify, provided that no colony or dependency shall be specified in any such order except upon application made by the governor of such colony or dependency, and until it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State for the Colonies that the system of jurisprudence, as administered in such colony or dependency, and the qualification for admission as attorney or solicitor in the superior courts thereof, answer to and fulfil the conditions herein-before in this section specified; and also that solicitors of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland are admitted as attorneys and solicitors of the superior courts of such colony or dependency on production of their certificates of admission in Ireland, without service or examination in the colony or dependency.

Only to apply to colonies specified in Order in Council, 20 & 21 Vict. c. 89. s. 7.

Roll of Solicitors.

35. —(1.) The books containing the roll of solicitors, and any other documents relating thereto, heretofore in the custody of the clerk of the records and writs, shall, as soon as may be after the passing of this Act, be transferred to and be kept in the custody of the Incorporated Law Society as registrar of solicitors; and all affidavits, orders, and documents heretofore required to be filed or delivered at the office of such clerk shall henceforth be filed with or delivered to the Society; and all powers and duties of such clerk in relation to the roll of solicitors, or to solicitors, shall henceforth (subject to the repeals effected by and to the other provisions of this Act) be performed and exercised by the Society: Provided that the Lord Chancellor shall have and exercise all the powers and jurisdiction with regard to all the matters in this section mentioned which he had and might have exercised if this Act had not been passed.
- (2.) The roll of solicitors shall, during office hours, be open to the inspection of any person, without fee or reward.

Transfer to Incorporated Law Society of roll of solicitors. 51 & 52 Vict. c. 65. ss. 3 and 6.

Striking off the Roll.

36. For the purpose of hearing any application to strike a solicitor off the roll of solicitors, or an application to require a solicitor to answer allegations contained in an affidavit, the Lord

Constitution of committee.

A.D. 1893. Chancellor shall appoint a committee of not less than three nor more than seven of the members of the council of the Society in this Act called "the committee."

51 & 52 Vict.
c. 65, s. 12.

(...) The Lord Chancellor may from time to time remove any member from the committee, or fill any vacancy in the committee, or add to 5 its number, provided that the number shall not exceed seven or be less than three.

No application shall be heard before less than three members of the committee.

51 & 52 Vict.
c. 65, s. 13.

37. An application to strike the name of a solicitor off the roll of 10 solicitors (whether at the instance of the solicitor himself or of any other person), or an application to require a solicitor to answer allegations contained in an affidavit, shall be made to and shall be heard by the committee, in accordance with regulations to be made under the authority of this Act.

The committee, after hearing the case, shall embody their finding in the form of a report to the Lord Chancellor, who shall make such order thereon as he shall think fit.

If the committee are of opinion that there is no prima facie case of misconduct against the solicitor, the Society need not take any 20 further proceedings; but if the committee are of opinion that there is a prima facie case, it shall be the duty of the Society to bring the report of the committee before the Lord Chancellor.

The report shall have the same effect, and shall be treated by the Lord Chancellor in the same manner, as a report of a master of 25 the court; and the Lord Chancellor may make such order thereon as he may think fit.

Provided that any person who but for this Act would have been entitled to apply to the court to strike a solicitor off the roll of solicitors, or to apply to require a solicitor to answer allegations 30 contained in an affidavit, shall be entitled so to apply, although the committee is of opinion that there is no prima facie case of misconduct against the solicitor, and shall be entitled to be heard if the Society brings the report of the committee before the Lord Chancellor.

Solicitors
not to act for unqualified
persons, &c.
6 & 7 Vict.
c. 72. s. 32.

53. If any solicitor shall wilfully and knowingly act as agent in any action, suit, or matter for any person not duly qualified to act as a solicitor, or permit or suffer his name to be anyways made use of in any action, suit, or matter, upon the account, or for the profit of any unqualified person, or send any process to such unqualified person, or do any act thereby to enable such unqualified person to appear, act, or practise in any respect as a solicitor in any action, suit, or matter, knowing such person not to be duly qualified as aforesaid, and complaint shall be made thereof in a summary way to any Divisional Court of the High Court, or any judge thereof, and proof made thereof upon oath to the satisfaction of such court or judge, that such solicitor hath wilfully and knowingly offended therein as aforesaid, then and in such case every such solicitor so offending may be struck off the roll, and for ever after disabled from practising as a solicitor, or may be suspended from practising as a solicitor for such time as to such court shall seem fit and proper, and in that case, and upon such complaint and proof made as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for the court or judge to commit such unqualified person so acting or practising as aforesaid to prison for any term not exceeding one year.

A.D. 1893.

54. Any person who acts as a solicitor without being duly qualified so to act shall be deemed guilty of a contempt of the court in which the action, suit, or matter in relation to which he so acts is brought, had, or taken, and may be punished accordingly, and shall in addition to any other penalty or forfeiture, forfeit and pay for every such offence to the Incorporated Law Society the sum of fifty pounds, to be recovered, with full costs of suit, by action brought, with the sanction of Her Majesty's Attorney-General in the name of the Incorporated Law Society, in the High Court of Justice.

Penalty for wrongfully acting as a solicitor.

29 & 30 Vicz. c. 84. s. 46.

55. Any person who wilfully and falsely pretends to be, or takes or uses any name, title, addition, or description implying that he is duly qualified to act as a solicitor, or that he is recognised by law as so qualified, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act, and be liable to a penalty not exceeding the sum of ten pounds for each offence.
